Dentistry

I understand that my pet may have teeth that need to be extracted during the dental cleaning. By signing below I understand that this is done so at an additional expense of $10.00-$50.00. I also understand that antibiotics may need to be sent home with my pet if periodontal disease is present. This charge is also not included in the cost of the dentistry.

Initial _____

Home Again Microchip

A microchip can help relocate your lost pet with you. This is not a GPS locating device. A great time to have it inserted is during anesthesia, but it can be done at any time. The cost is $69.99 and includes the lifetime enrollment.

I would like my pet to be microchipped. _____ Yes _____ No

Are there any additional concerns or procedures that you would like addressed or performed while your pet is here today?
